TOTAL				0.541139687	1,548,028

Regarding the payment of Interest on Equity (IoE), a 15% income tax will be withheld, except for shareholders exempt from said withholding, as provided for in the legislation in force.

Pursuant to Law 15,270/2025, individual shareholders residing in Brazil who receive dividends exceeding R$50,000.00 (fifty thousand reais) in the same calendar month, paid by the same legal entity, will be subject to withholding income tax at a rate of 10% on the total amount received, considering, for purposes of this threshold, the aggregate amount of all dividends paid during the respective month.

Under the same Law, profits and dividends paid, credited, or remitted to beneficiaries residing outside Brazil will be subject to withholding income tax at a rate of 10%, regardless of the amount received.

Shareholders whose bank details are updated with Banco Itaú Unibanco S.A., the custodian institution of CEMIG's registered shares, will have their credits automatically made on the payment day.

If the shareholder does not receive the aforementioned credit, they should go to a branch of Banco Itaú Unibanco S.A. to update their registration data.

The payout related to the shares held in custody with Companhia Brasileira de Liquidação e Custódia (CBLC) will be directly credited to such entity, and the Depository Brokers will be responsible for transferring them to the respective shareholders.

Belo Horizonte, June 10, 2026.
