CVM Questioning

Re: Request for clarification on a news article

"(...) In response to the news article published on this date in the O Globo newspaper, in its News section, under the headline: "Zema sells CEMIG's plants without a referendum, and the opposition contests," containing the following statements:

The administration of the governor of the State of Minas Gerais, Romeu Zema (Novo), authorized the sale of four hydroelectric power plants owned by Companhia Energética de Minas Gerais (CEMIG) without holding a popular referendum or consulting with the Legislative Assembly. The hydroelectric power plants were transferred to Âmbor Hidroenergia Ltda., which is part of the J&F group, whose main shareholders are the brothers Joesley and Wesley Batista.

1. In light of the above, we request that you clarify whether the news article is true and, if so, explain the reasons why you believe that it is not a material fact, and comment on other information deemed as important regarding the matter (...)"

CEMIG's Clarification

In response to Official Letter 56/2025/CVM/SEP/GEA-1, the Company clarifies that the transaction referred to in the news article published in the O Globo newspaper was the sale of the Machado Mineiro, the Sinceridade, the Martins, and the Marmelos Plants to Âmbor Hidroenergia Ltda., winner of Bidding Process 500-W20723, held at the headquarters of B3 S.A. – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão ("B3"), on December 5, 2024, for the amount of R$52 million, as disclosed by the Company through the Notices to the Market published on April 1, 2024, June 27, 2024, September 23, 2024, December 5, 2024 and February 21, 2025, available at the following links:
