Article 33 – Prior to any profit sharing, the profit for the year shall be deducted by accumulated losses, provision for income tax, social contribution on net profit, and then, subsequently, profit sharing for employees and Management.

Paragraph 1 – The net income calculated for each fiscal year shall be allocated as follows:

- a) 5% (five percent) to the legal reserve, up to the maximum limit provided by law;
- b) at least 50% (fifty percent) distributed as a mandatory dividend to the Company's only shareholder, subject to the other provisions of these Bylaws and applicable legislation; and
- c) the balance, after withholding the amounts allocated to investments foreseen in the capital budget and/or investment planning, according to the Company's Long-Term Strategy and Multi-Year Business Plan, approved by the Board of Directors of Cemig D, shall be distributed to CEMIG, its only shareholder, as dividends and/or interest on equity, subject to the availability of free cash.

Paragraph 2 – According to regulations issued by ANEEL, failure to comply with global annual limits on collective continuity indicators for 2 (two) consecutive years, or 3 (three) times over the course of 5 (five) years, may limit the distribution of dividends or payment of interest on capital, whose amounts, individually or jointly, surpass 25% (twenty-five percent) of the net profit reduced or increased by the amounts allocated as legal reserve and reserve for contingencies, plus the reversal of the same reserve from previous years, until the regulatory parameters are restored, pursuant to article 7, sub-clause 1, item I of the Fifth Addendum to the Public Electricity Distribution Service

Concession Agreements 002/1997/DNAEE, 003/1997/DNAEE, 004/1997/DNAEE and 005/1997/DNAEE, signed between the Company and the Federal Government.

Paragraph 3 – Failure to comply with the minimum economic and financial sustainability parameters defined in the Fifth Addendum to the Public Electricity Distribution Service Concession Agreements 002/1997/DNAEE, 003/1997/DNAEE, 004/1997/DNAEE and 005/1997/DNAEE, signed between the Company and the Federal Government shall limit the distribution of dividends or payment of interest on capital, whose amounts, individually or jointly, surpass 25% (twenty-five percent) of the net profit reduced or increased by the amounts allocated as legal reserve and reserve for contingencies, plus the reversal of the same reserve from previous years, until the regulatory parameters are restored and proven through regulatory accounting statements for the calendar year subsequently delivered to ANEEL.

Paragraph 4 – The distribution of mandatory dividends or payment of interest on equity, respecting the minimum legal requirement, may be exceptionally limited in situations or conditions required by the regulatory body, through normative or contractual provision, aimed at mitigating a financial imbalance caused by a third party, an act of government, unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure expressly recognized. The corresponding contracts must be approved by the Board of Directors or the Executive Board, within the scope of their legal and statutory attributions, and the proposing body shall be responsible for demonstrating, in a well-founded manner, the benefits of the contract for the Company and the urgency of the measure in view of the potential damage that may result from its non-adoption.

Article 34 – Notwithstanding the mandatory dividend, the Company may declare, on an extraordinary basis, the payment of additional, intermediate or interim dividends, subject to applicable legislation and at the discretion of the Board of Directors, to be attributed as a total or partial advance of the mandatory dividend for the current fiscal year.

Article 35 – The Board of Directors may decide to pay interest on equity, according to applicable legislation, as a total or partial replacement of the dividends referred in the previous article, or as complementary dividends, with the amounts paid or credited under such title be included in the amounts of dividends distributed by the Company for all legal purposes.

Article 36 – Mandatory or extraordinary dividends declared will be paid in 2 (two) equal installments, the first by June 30 and the second by December 30 of each year, and the Executive Board, within these deadlines, will be responsible for determining the locations and payment processes.

Sole Paragraph – Dividends not claimed within 3 (three) years from the date they have been made available to shareholders will revert to the benefit of the Company.

Article 37 – The Company's employees are entitled to receive profit sharing, under the criteria defined by the Executive Board, the guidelines approved by the Board of Directors, and limits established by the General Shareholders' Meeting, pursuant to applicable legislation.

CHAPTER VIII

Management Responsibilities

Article 38 – Management is accountable to the Company and third parties for their acts during the exercise of their duties, pursuant to applicable laws and regulations and these Bylaws.

Article 39 – The Company will ensure that members and former members of the Board of Directors, Audit Board, Executive Board and Audit Committee are able to defend themselves in legal and administrative proceedings, actively and passively, during or after their respective terms of office, related to facts or acts carried out during the exercise of their duties.

Paragraph 1 – The guarantee provided in the caput of this article extends to employees who were delegated or mandated by the Company's Management to perform legal acts.

Paragraph 2 – The Company must hire civil liability insurance to cover procedural expenses, legal fees and indemnifications arising from the judicial and administrative proceedings referred to in the caput of this article, as approved by the Board of Directors.

Paragraph 3 – The insurance hired may also cover the defense of the insured parties in other spheres, so long as the acts do not illegal acts or abuse of power.

Paragraph 4 – As an alternative to hiring or activating insurance claims, the Company may hire a specialized external legal firm to defend challenged acts whenever this option, which includes legal expenses and advisory fees, is cheaper than insurance.

Paragraph 5 – If a member of the Board of Directors, Audit Board, or Executive Board, or if a non-statutory Director or employee is convicted, with a final and unappealable decision, he/she must reimburse the Company for all costs, expenses, and losses incurred.

Paragraph 6 – The company shall issue a Comfort Letter to the members of the Board of Directors, Audit Board, Executive Board, Audit Committee, and non-statutory Directors addressing the acts carried out in good faith, subject to legal provisions.

CHAPTER IX

Resolution of Disputes

Article 40 – The Company, its shareholders, Management, and members of the Audit Board undertake to resolve, through arbitration, preceded by mediation, before the Market Arbitration Chamber (CAM) of B3 S.A. – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão or the FGV Chamber of Mediation and Arbitration, any dispute or controversy that may arise between them, related to or arising in particular from the application, validity, effectiveness, interpretation, violation and its effects, of the provisions contained in applicable legislation, the Company's Bylaws, in any shareholder agreements filed at the Company's headquarters, the rules issued by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission, as well as other rules applicable to the operation of the capital markets in general, in addition to those provided for in B3's Level 1 Listing Regulation.

Sole Paragraph – Without prejudice to the validity of this arbitration clause, the request for urgent measures, prior to the constitution of the arbitration court, must be sent to the Judiciary Branch, observing the legal jurisdiction of the district of Belo Horizonte, State of Minas Gerais.

CHAPTER X

General Provisions

Article 41 – Candidates may only be admitted as employees to the Company's permanent workforce after being approved in a public competition process.

Sole Paragraph – Employees are subject to applicable employment law and the Company's internal regulations.

Article 42 – When signing contracts and other legal documents between the Company and related parties, including the State of Minas Gerais and CEMIG, the Company's related-party transaction policy must be observed.

Article 43 – The term “applicable legislation” provided in these Bylaws includes regulatory rules, subject to the prevalence of Law over rules of an infra-legal nature.

Article 44 – The Company must apply the tariffs set by regulatory bodies in their entirety.

Article 45 – Financial covenants currently in place for the Company must mandatorily be mentioned in the Company's debt and dividends policy, to be approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 46 – Policies complementary to these Bylaws, required by the applicable legislation, must be approved by the Board of Directors, as proposed by the Executive Board.

Article 47 – Members of the Company’s Management, Audit Board, and Audit Committee, including the representative of employees and minority shareholders, upon taking office must participate, on an annual basis, in specific training sessions made available by the Company relating to:

- a) corporate and capital market legislation;
- b) disclosure of information;
- c) internal control;
- d) code of conduct;
- e) Federal Law 12,846, of August 01, 2013;
- f) bidding process and contracts; and
- g) other matters related to the Company's activities.

Sole Paragraph – Members who have not participated in annual training sessions made available by the Company over the course of 2 (two) years are prohibited from being reelected.

Article 48 – For the purposes of the provisions of Article 17, Paragraph 2, Item IV, and Article 22, Paragraph 1, Item V, of Law 13,303, of June 30, 2016, and Article 26, Item IX, of State Decree 47,154, of February 20, 2017, the hiring of CEMIG and its wholly-owned subsidiaries for activities carried out under a natural monopoly, as a consumer, is not considered an impediment to nominate members for management positions, including independent members.

CHAPTER XI

Transitory Provisions

Article 49 – The rules relating to the members of the Board of Directors, Executive Board, Audit Board and Audit Committee specified in these Bylaws shall be applied to mandates that initiate after the amendments to these Bylaws, reflecting the adaptation specified by Law 13,303/2016 and State Decree 47,154/2017.

Paragraph 1 – On an exceptional basis, the first term of office for the members of the Company’s Board of Directors, Executive Board and Audit Board shall begin with the election held immediately after the approval of these Bylaws, ending at the 2020 Annual Shareholders’ Meeting.

Paragraph 2 – For the purposes of Article 9, Paragraph 2, Article 15, and Article 28, the interregnum period between the last General Shareholders’ Meeting held on April 30, 2018, and the election immediately held after the approval of these Bylaws shall not classify as a new term of office.

Article 50 – Until the specific decisions are taken by the Board of Directors, the internal processes, organizational structure, names and terms being used by the Company on the date of approval of these Bylaws shall be maintained.

Article 51 – Omissions in these Bylaws shall be resolved by the General Shareholders’ Meeting and are subject to applicable legislation.
